

The baby shower was held at Allie's Cabin, a private lodge nestled half way up the mountain located on the slopes of Beaver Creek. It was hosted by The Hot Moms Club and Suave. Various lavish gifts were given to Trista and the new baby by many local Le-high Valley boutiques, which included fabulous Fendi B-Buckle sunglasses from Euro Optics, and a Bellini Baby gift certificate from Carrie Wilson, owner of Bellini Baby. Remarkable cosmetic gift bags were presented to all the guests of the baby shower by Jennifer Campain.

Professional makeup artist Jennifer Campain and hair stylist Kayla MiChele were invited by Jessica Denay & Joy Tilk Bergin of The Hot Moms Club to perform makeup and hair for television star Trista Sutter and her four shower hosts at Trista's baby shower in Beaver Creek, CO.

Trista is the prominent former participant on the ABC reality television shows The Bachelor and the The Bachelorette. Her televised wedding to Ryan Sutter on ABC drew over 26 million viewers, making it one of the most-widely viewed episodes in the history of reality television.

"Working with Jennifer was a treat. Besides being completely professional and on her game, she is incredibly sweet and personable. And when you are face to face with someone for more than 5 minutes, that's important! She made me feel comfortable, taken care of, and beautiful. I would gladly work with her again and again." - Trista Sutter
